

The Raising Of The Daughter Of Jairus

Matthew 9:18-19, 23-26; Mark 5:21-24, 35-43; Luke 8:41-42, 49-56

Following the exorcism of the man of Gadara, Jesus and the apostles would again cross over the Sea of Galilee, and a multitude of people gathered unto Him (Mark 5:21; Luke 8:40). Out of this multitude, Matthew, Mark, and Luke all draw particular attention to a certain man; “behold, there came a certain ruler” (Matthew 9:18), “And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jarius by name” (Mark 5:22), “And, behold, there came a man named Jairus” (Luke 8:41). Matthew, Mark, and Luke all used the word “behold” a word that is used to introduce something extraordinary and momentous! It is a word calling upon us to “give serious thought and consideration” Jairus came to Christ on behalf of his sick daughter, and as Jesus and the multitude were headed to the house of Jairus, there was an interruption in the proceeding, and his daughter died, and then JESUS DID THE MIRACULOUS IN RAISING HER UP!

I. THE CASE AND EXAMPLE OF JAIRUS

① The Position Of Jairus:

He was a man of high rank, one of the most prominent men of Capernaum. Matthew refers to him as “a certain ruler” (Matthew 9:18). Mark refers to him as “one of the rulers of the synagogue” (Mark 5:22), and Luke writes “he was a ruler of the synagogue” (Luke 8:41). He was a man with a high social position, a man known among the people, a man of prestige, power, and influence, therefore his daughter is referred to as a “damsel” (a young unmarried woman of noble birth) in Mark 5:39, 41-42. The rank, fame, prestige, power, and influence of Jairus could not prevent his daughter from getting sick and dying!

② Jairus Had A Burden And A Great Need:

Both Mark and Luke record that the daughter of Jairus was twelve years old (Mark 5:42; Luke 8:42), and Luke records that this was his only daughter (Luke 8:42). This only daughter of Jairus became very very ill, and Mark writes that she was “at the point of death” (Mark 5:23), and Luke writes “she lay a dying” (Luke 8:42), and in Matthew it is recorded that Jairus said to Christ “My daughter is even now dead” (Matthew 9:18). In other words, in the mind of Jairus, she was as good as dead, he was helpless, and the case seemed hopeless! JAIRUS WAS GREATLY BURDENED FOR HIS DAUGHTER!

③ Jairus Sought Christ:

Matthew records “there came a certain ruler” (Matthew 9:18). Mark records “there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name” (Mark 5:22), and Luke records “there came a man named Jairus” (Luke 8:41). HE MADE A DELIBERATE CHOICE TO SEEK CHRIST ON BEHALF OF HIS DAUGHTER! He was willing to risk and sacrifice everything to seek Christ! Because of the nature of the rising opposition that Jesus was facing, Jairus risked his place, his position, and status in the community by seeking Jesus that day! HE WAS WILLING TO SEEK CHRIST AT ALL COST TO HIMSELF! He was not ashamed for everyone to know that he would seek Christ on behalf of his family! Because of the opposition that Christ was facing from the “religious world” it took courage for Jairus (a ruler of the synagogue), to personally and visibly come to Christ!

○ He Came In Humility:

Matthew writes that he “worshipped Him” (Matthew 9:18). Mark and Luke record that “he fell at His feet” (Mark 5:22; Luke 8:41). Jairus a “ruler of the synagogue” comes and takes the place of the lowest of servants, he comes and takes the place of a needy creature, HE WAS NOT ASHAMED TO DO SO! HE WAS NOT ASHAMED TO BE SEEN WITH CHRIST!

○ He Came With A Burdened Heart:

You can hear the burden, the concern, and the care in his words; “My daughter is even now dead” (Matthew 9:18), “My little daughter lieth at the point of death” (Mark 5:23).

○ He Came As A Pleader:

Mark records that he “besought (begged, and pleaded) Him greatly” (earnestly) and “I pray (beg) thee” (Mark 5:23), and Luke says that he “besought Him” (Luke 8:41). To plead is to realize that one is at the mercy of another! His was a prayer that proceeded out of great need and affection! It was a specific prayer “come and lay thy hand upon her” (Matthew 9:18), “come and lay thy hands upon her” (Mark 5:23), and “besought Him that He would come into his house” (Luke 8:41). His was a prayer of faith “come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live” (Matthew 9:18), “I pray thee, come and lay thy hands upon her, that she may be healed; and she shall live” (Mark 5:23). HE BELIEVED THAT CHRIST WAS ABLE!

④ There Were Apparent Disruptions That Would Test The Faith Of Jairus:

○ There Was The Thronging Multitude:

In answer to the prayer of Jairus, Jesus headed to his house, presumably to heal his daughter (Matthew 9:18-19), but progress was being slowed because of the multitude (Mark 5:24; Luke 8:42). Surely Jairus was in a hurry, thinking that there is no time to spare, and I am sure that he viewed this mob of people as an intrusion and a disruption at a very inopportune time. I am sure that he wished that the people would just back off, so that they could get to his house as quickly as possible. I am sure that it was exasperating and very bothersome to Jairus that the crowd was disrupting the progress toward his house, and that it was continuing to grow! WHAT SEEMS TO BE DISRUPTIONS TESTS FAITH!

○ There Was The Woman With The Issue Of Blood:

As Jesus is slowly making His way toward the house of Jairus, a woman with a great need brought the whole procession to a standstill (Matthew 9:20-22; Mark 5:25-34; Luke 8:43-48). This woman who had come up behind Jesus and touched Him, and had been made whole, made her way in front of Jesus and told her story (Luke 8:47). ANOTHER DISRUPTION! But this was done to strengthen the faith of Jairus! He heard how that for 12 years she had been an outcast, estranged from her family, her friends, and from the place of worship. He heard about her 12 years of anguish, torment, affliction, sorrow and utter heartache! He heard that how she now had nothing! He heard about how she had tried everything, but only got worse! He heard her say, "I came believing that if I could but touch your garment, that I would be made whole, and when I made my way through this crowd and reached forth and grasped the hem of your garment, I could feel myself immediately whole, I could feel the flow of blood stop" Jairus could see the joy, the jubilation that she had! He heard Jesus say to her "Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole" Jesus said that, not only to encourage and to assure this woman, but also for the benefit of Jairus! NO DOUBT, THE FAITH OF JAIRUS WAS BOLSTERED AND STRENGTHENED BY WHAT HE HAD JUST HEARD!

Oh, that we might learn to look at the interruptions that come our way, as inconvenient and inopportune as they might appear, as tiresome, as annoying, and as difficult as they might be, THAT WE MIGHT SEE THEM AS OPPORTUNITIES TO STRENGTHEN OUR FAITH!

○ There Was The News From The House Of Jairus:

Upon hearing the testimony of the healed woman, Jairus was probably more sure than before that Jesus was able to heal his dying daughter! BUT THEN CAME WHAT SEEMED TO BE THE GREATEST DISRUPTION OF ALL "Thy daughter is dead" (Mark 5:35; Luke 8:49). Sorrow and anguish must have filled the heart of Jairus at this time! Then came the words "why troublest the Master any further?" (Mark 5:35; Luke 8:49). In other words, "It's all over, there is no use to pursue this matter any further" This was no doubt devastating and disheartening news to Jairus! THIS NO DOUBT WOULD FURTHER TEST THE FAITH OF JAIRUS! Jesus, knowing the heart and mind of Jairus (Proverbs 15:11), and knowing exactly what Jairus needed to do used this disruption to further encourage the faith of Jairus (Mark 5:36; Luke 8:50). Jesus is saying to Jairus "Don't let this news frighten you, do not let this news alarm and intimidate you, do not allow this news to cause you anxiety and distress, do not allow this news to cause you to be reluctant and hesitant” “BELIEVE” That is, “Keep on believing Me” He is saying, “in spite of the discouraging news, keep on being persuaded that I am able, keep on having confidence, keep on having assurance that I am able” The solution to heart agitation, confusion, fear, worry, and distress is “BELIEVE” Despair offers its solution “Curse God and die” Jesus offers the solution of faith! Stoicism offers its solution “Harden your heart against all feeling” Jesus offers the solution of faith! Epicureanism offers its solution “Forget all your trouble and treat yourself to some pleasure” Jesus offers the solution of faith! What Jesus told Jairus, is what He would later tell the troubled apostles on the night of the Passover (John 14:1, 27). When Jesus spoke these words to Jairus, I believe that there was a peace, a calmness, and contentment that came over the heart of Jairus!

There seems to be interruptions and delays, but there was no disruption in what Jesus was going to do, HE MADE IT TO THE HOUSE OF JAIRUS JUST WHEN HE INTENDED TO! God’s people need to view the so-called interruptions and disruptions, as opportunities to strengthen faith!

II. THE MIRACLE PERFORMED BY CHRIST

When they arrived at the house, Peter, James, John, and the mother and Jairus were allowed to enter the house with Jesus (Mark 5:40; Luke 8:51). These three were privileged to see and experience things that the others were not (Matthew 17:1-2).

① The Scene In The House:

It was a scene of helplessness, and great sorrow. Matthew simply records that “the minstrels (singers), and the people making a noise” (Matthew 9:23). Mark writes that when they came into the house that there was “tumult (uproar, commotion, bedlam), and them that wept and wailed (howled) greatly” (Mark 5:38). Luke writes “And all wept and bewailed (lamented) her” (Luke 8:52). JESUS ENTERING INTO THE HOUSE WOULD CHANGE EVERYTHING! One greater than sickness, death, and sorrow had arrived! All through the Gospels we find Jesus going to places of distress, loneliness, sorrow, anguish, and death, providing the comfort and assurance that only He can give, and bringing about the change that only He can bring about!

② Christ Performs A Miraculous Work:

There was the touch of Christ (Matthew 9:25; Mark 5:41; Luke 8:54). There was the spoken word of Christ (Mark 5:41; Luke 8:54). There was life imparted; “And her spirit came again” (Luke 8:55). THE TOUCH AND WORD OF CHRIST WAS EFFECTUAL! There was the manifestation of life imparted “and the maid arose” (Matthew 9:25), “And straightway the damsel arose and walked” (Mark 5:42), “she arose straightway” (Luke 8:55). The result of this was amazement (Mark 5:42; Luke 8:56).

Matthew, Mark, and Luke all show Jesus and Jairus walking together (Matthew 9:19; Mark 5:24; Luke 8:42), and as a result, THE FAITH AND RESOLVE OF JAIRUS WAS STRENGTHENED BY WALKING WITH CHRIST! Walking with Christ, Jairus brought Him into his home, and THAT HOME WAS BLESSED WITH THE PRESENCE AND MIRACULOUS POWER OF CHRIST! CHRIST MADE A DIFFERENCE IN THAT HOME!
