

The Miraculous Catches Of Fish

Luke 5:1-11; Matthew 17:24-27; John 21:1-13

These passages record three separate miracles of Christ, each involving the miraculous catching of fish. Each one is recorded by only one of the Gospel writers. Luke records the “Miraculous Draught Of Fishes.” Matthew records the “Miraculous Supply Of The Tribute Money.” John records a post-resurrection appearance of Christ, that involved a “Miraculous Draught Of Fish.” Each of these miracles took place in various parts of the “Sea of Galilee.” It is referred to in Luke 5:1 as “lake Gennesaret” was a town on the northwestern shore.

record three separate all involving the of fish. Each one of recorded by only one records the “Miraculous Tribute Money.” John resurrection Christ, that involved a “Miraculous Draught Of Fish.” Each took place in various Galilee.” It is referred to Gennesaret” town on the In Matthew 17:24 the place of the miracle is said to be “Capernaum” a fishing village on the northwestern shore, just north of “Gennesaret” In John 21:1 the place of the miracle is referred to as the “sea of Tiberias” Tiberias was a city on the western shore. These three separate miracles are filled with much encouragement for the child of God.

I. EACH MIRACLE IS AN ILLUSTRATION OF THE LORD’S MIRACULOUS PROVISION

① In Each Miracle Christ Is Seen As The Great Provider:

God is the owner of all (Exodus 19:5; I Chronicles 29:11-12; Psalm 24:1; 50:10; 89:11; Haggai 2:8). Everything is in His hands, and time, place, or circumstance is no deterrent to the ability of the Lord to provide. All through the Word of God, it is vividly illustrated that God is a God of provision and bestowment, that He has the ability to provide for and to distribute to the needs of man, in a way that is beyond man’s comprehension.

② In Each Miracle There Was The Use Of Means:

In each of these three miracles, there was the human ability to fish, and there were the material means to fish. In Luke 5:4 there were “nets” (plural), and in John 21:6 there was a “net” (singular), and in Matthew 17:27 there was a “hook” (singular), but these in and of themselves were to no avail without the blessing of the Lord. Peter declared “we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing” (Luke 5:5), and it is recorded in John 21:3 “and that night they caught nothing” ABILITY AND MEANS OF THEMSELVES DO NOT ASSURE SUCCESS! In each miracle Christ issued a command to use the means that they had. He said to Peter “go thou to the sea, and cast an hook” (Matthew 17:27), and to the apostles “Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets” [Luke 5:4], and “Cast the net on the right side of the ship” (John 21:6). In these miracles Christ used what would be considered to be likely means for the catching of fish, but God does not always use the likely to provide the needs of His people. He used the Egyptians to provide the needs for building the tabernacle (Exodus 3:21; 11:3; 12:36). He provided water from a rock for the Israelites (Exodus 17:6). He provided for Elijah in the time of famine, by using the ravens (I Kings 17:6), and a poor widow woman (I Kings 17:16). God does use the abilities and the means of individuals, BUT HIS PROVISIONS ARE NOT LIMITED TO OUR ABILITIES AND MEANS (Philippians 4:19).

II. EACH MIRACLE IS AN ILLUSTRATION OF THE LORD’S GREATNESS

① There Is An Illustration Of Christ’s Omniscience:

In each miracle it is illustrated that Christ knew where the fish were, and what they would do, and what the end result would be. Because He knew, He could speak with absolute certainty. In Luke 5:4 “Launch out into the deep, (He knew where the fish would be) and let down your nets for a draught” (He knew what the fish would do, and what the final result would be). In John 21:6 “Cast the net on the right side of the ship (He knew where the fish would be), and ye shall find” (He knew what the fish would do, and what the result would be). In Matthew 17:27 He said to Peter “go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money” Here it is one particular fish, and He knew where it would be, what it would do, and what the final result would be. He knew that there would be a piece of money (sufficient to pay the tribute) in one particular fish. HE HAS PERFECT KNOWLEDGE OF ANIMATE AND INANIMATE MATTER!

② There Is An Illustration Of Christ’s Dominion:

These three miracles are an illustration of Psalms 8:6-9. They are an illustration of His absolute sovereignty, superiority, mastery, control, and preeminence over all things (Colossians 1:16-18). In Luke 5 Christ directed the apostles to the deep waters, and sent “a great multitude of fishes” into the apostles nets. In John 21 Christ instructed the apostles to cast their nets “on the right side of the ship” and He led 153 fish into their net (verse 11). In Matthew 17 Christ not only put the tribute money in one particular fishes mouth, but led that same fish to Peter’s bait! Christ told Peter “take up the fish that first cometh up” (verse 27). He not only led that particular fish to Peter’s bait, but also prevented any other fish from getting there first!

III. EACH MIRACLE ILLUSTRATES THE VALUE OF OBEDIENCE TO THE LORD

① Prior To Each Miracle There Was Specific Instruction For The Particular Time And Circumstance:

Three separate times, three separate places, three separate circumstances, and in each, Christ issues a command, followed by a promise: “go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money” (Matthew 17:27). “Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught” (Luke 5:4). “Cast the net on the right side of the ship and ye shall find” (John 21:6). CHRIST’S COMMANDS ARE ALWAYS TIMELY AND RELEVANT TO OUR NEEDS!

② Prior To Each Miracle There Was Obedience To Christ’s Command:

In Luke 5:6 it is recorded “And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake” and in John 21:6 “They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes” They believed that it was Christ’s right to command, and they believed that it was their personal obligation to obey. Their obedience was unquestioning, it was immediate, and it was exact. Peter said to Christ “we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net” (Luke 5:5). THE WORD OF THE LORD WAS ALL THEY NEEDED! All through the Word of God, there is a close connection between obedience, and the miraculous!

Though we may possess ability and material means, that is not always enough. Sometimes the Lord will bring us to a position of nothing, a place of emptiness to cause us to realize, that it is He that has everything that we need, and knows everything, and is in absolute control of everything, and that we are absolutely dependent upon Him for everything. He gives instruction, guidance, and commands, and we need to trust Him enough to obey, and expect the miraculous!
