September 2021

Dear Brethren,

"For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain." (Isaiah 66:22). Greetings in the sovereign name of the Lord Jesus Christ. We pray that this report finds each one doing well.

It has been a blessing to be able to continue with the services this month in Mullewa, for which we thank the Lord. Although we did not see any new visitors, we continue to pray for the Lord's blessing upon His Word, knowing that we are to bear witness to His glory and grace. May He grant us grace to be faithful.

Cyd and I would like to express our thanks to the Lord's people and churches for your faithful prayers and support over the years. We know that prayers are offered unto our heavenly Father for His work here, as well as for us and our health, which returns to our blessing and encouragement. We have cause daily to rejoice in our Lord's kind providence towards us with thanksgiving. Our prayers are with all of you as well.

Thank you once again for your continued love, encouragement, prayers, and support for the Lord's work in Australia and Papua New Guinea.

Love in Christ, Frank James

Confusion –

To be able to contact Frank if he is out running errands, we have a pay-as-you-go cell phone that we keep at the house. Only a few lady friends have this number. I hardly ever look at it. A few days ago, I happened to glance at it and saw I had a voice message. I dialed the number and in the midst of a lot of background noise, a male voice spoke my name twice in a questioning way. I was confused. What male knew my number plus my name? It gave me a funny feeling. Usually all I get is sales pitches or phishing texts and calls. Thus, when Frank came home, I asked him to listen to it. He started laughing and said, "That was me a few days ago trying to ask what else we needed at the grocery store." It's weird when you don't recognize your own husband's voice on the phone after being married for almost 46 years. But then I asked why he called out my name on voice mail and he said he couldn't tell because of the noise in the store. We both laughed over it and how it concerned me that a stranger knew my name on a private number. 😊
