April 2025

Dear Brethren,

"Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me" (Micah 7:7). Greetings in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord who is the Saviour and Advocate of His people. We pray that each one is doing well.

After arriving at the Institute for Neuro Immune Medicine, Cyd and I both hoped that newer treatments would give her renewed health and strength as it did with her first specialist many years ago. However, we have since learned that it doesn't appear that this will be the case at this time, as her illness has worsened over the last several years and it is going to take time to recover more fully, if at all. The specialists have said that the illnesses on the mission field have taken a toll.

Presently, she remains disabled by her illness, lacking strength and energy to function each day. For the months that we have been Stateside, she has rarely been able to leave our trailer, except for necessary appointments, and that with a cost to her well-being. As her health has deteriorated, I have become her full-time caregiver, now to the extent that I am hindered from doing almost anything else.

We believe that the Lord in His great wisdom and tender mercy has brought this change in our circumstances for our good and His glory. We also believe His kind providence towards us now requires us to step aside from His work for the present and to wait upon Him with regard to His will for us in the future.

We hope to be able to give a better update by our next report regarding particulars. Your faithful prayers, encouragement, and love shown towards us during this time is greatly appreciated.

Thank you once again for the kindness that has been given and for the love, prayers, encouragement, and support for the Lord's work in Australia and in Papua New Guinea.

Love in Christ, Bro. Frank James

When your life becomes unsteady,
And nothing is stable or sure,
Hang on to the Arm of the Lord,
And through His strength you'll endure
C James
