September 2016

"Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;" (II Corinthians 1:3). Greetings in the precious name of Jesus Christ the Lord. We hope that each one of you are doing well.

Cyd and I have been able to get settled in again after getting back to Australia, and have caught up on much of the necessary work that was neglected in our absence.

We are thankful that our regular worship services are going well. Since I am eager to continue on with the work of spreading the Gospel into new areas, I am in the process of getting more Gospel bulletins printed. Our usual practice is to have them printed in batches of 10,000 copies.

Our spring weather in the Perth area has been cold and rainy, but we are expecting more suitable weather for getting out into the community, as we move into early summer in the Southern Hemisphere.

Cyd is being followed by a doctor here in Perth, who is working with her specialist in the USA. We feel thankful for the Lord's blessing in this.

Our sincere thanks for your continued love, prayers, encouragement, and support for the Lord's work in Australia and Papua New Guinea.

Love in Christ, Frank James

Writing Lists:

Many of us in the world are list writers. When we first got back to Australia, I had a lot of lists for us both to get caught back up on things. However, one thing I have learned over the years is that I put my lists in the order of importance to me, but Frank doesn't do them that way. I'll see the fourth thing scratched off of the list but not the first. He appreciates the list, but has his own priorities. Thinking about this made me realize more fully how we think that the Lord should do things in our lives in some order of importance in our own minds. Yet it rarely is that way. By His grace, I am able to see how it is a blessing to have things work out in His way, and in His timeframe, and in His order. That's when things truly fall into place.

A friend in Christ, Cyd James
